upon British interests with the following paragraph:
"In the midst of all the confusion and loss, it is necessary to bear in mind the vigor and elasticity with which the American people meet and repair every adversity. The consequences of the two fires which within the past thirty-five years have devastated the business portions of New York were encountered with a promptitude which soon effaced their traces, and at a later period a like visitation at San Francisco caused a still greater development of indomitable energy. Hence it is some satisfaction, in the midst of the present disaster, to predict that, whatever may be its magnitude, there will be nothing more astonishing in connection with it than the way in which the sufferers will effect the work of restoration.

And this prediction (it may be added) is in full course of verification. CHAMPAGNE AND CIDER.—It is said that the wine-producing districts of France were so seri-ously injured during the German occupation that we shall have but little wine this year, and that at high prices. But while Jersey cider and carbonic gas hold out there will be no lack of " champagne." Breede, the forger, attempted in the Tombs Court in New York yesterday to swallow the evidence of his guilt, a forged check on the Stuyvesant Bank, but was prevented by the detectives.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24, 1871.

Dear Sir: I have given your BALM OF LIFE for the hair a fair trial, and am much pleased with its effects. It is a healthful wash for both the scalp and hair and its influence to worth the percess and revive. hair; and its influence to sooth the nerves and revive the system when exhausted from overwork is most delightful. I have not used it except as a wash, but on your recommendation, and from the faith its use, thus far, has secured from me. I should feel great confidence in taking it as a medicine, according to your directions.

YOUNG MEN

Befiect th sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote commutial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect houring darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with corrown.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education or respectability can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallect fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment; or, by the use of that deadly poison. Mercury, cause the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease to make their appearance, such as alcerated sere throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dissiness of sight, deafness, nodes in the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at the last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveler returns."

To such, therefore, Dr. Johnson offers the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world.
